Tickets €25

Seán is playing to packed theatres across the country since the release of his 10th solo album "New Day Dawning", in December 2016. Sean's appearance on the 'Late Late Show' reacquainted many fans with his very distinctive voice and empathised with his story of loss, when he sang the duet 'One More Hour' with Aine Morgan. Úna Curley
The Emotional Artist

The Oriel Centre Dundalk Gaol is delighted to host the highly acclaimed 'Mi Camino a través del Arte' exhibition for a special viewing from Monday 29th January 2018 to Friday 2nd February 2018.

Úna will be available to walk and talk through the pieces from 11am - 1pm and 2pm - 4pm each day.

In this touring exhibition 'Mi Camino a través del Arte' Úna shares a very personal six year journey of self-discovery through art which led to a first class honours degree in Textile Design/Textile Art & Artefact from NCAD in 2015. She invites the viewer to walk through the pieces each representing barriers or issues that arise on a journey of change.

'A journey from heart to head'. Her work is influenced by her background in communication, personal development and the complexities of language. Her studio 'RushNot' is informed by ideas of sustainability, the environment and worryingly fast pace of consumption and subsequent waste. Using mainly repurposed textiles for their rich narrative, the pieces are quirky, instantly recognisable and always thought provoking.

Through her labour intensive work she explores our emotional relationship with Time, Materials and Self.
